

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

MARK COSTELLO

Dear parents and carers,

The terms at Foxes can seem quite long with no half term and we are mindful that sometimes we need to ensure we have some fun! In the spring and summer term therefore, we have Personal Development Week where we take a break from our usual routine and put our focus into other areas of enrichment. The students are really looking forward to the range of activities and sessions over the week including Team Building with Channel Adventures, multi-sports, arts and crafts, RSE and a recap of Prevent and staying safe online and in the community.

In addition to this we have a Hilton takeover day at the hotel on Friday where we have invited our many work experience providers for a formal dinner service led by our third years to say thank you for the opportunities and support they have provided over the last year.

Please keep an eye on our social media for pictures throughout the week and I look forward to including them on next week's newsletter.

AN UPDATE FROM EDUCATION

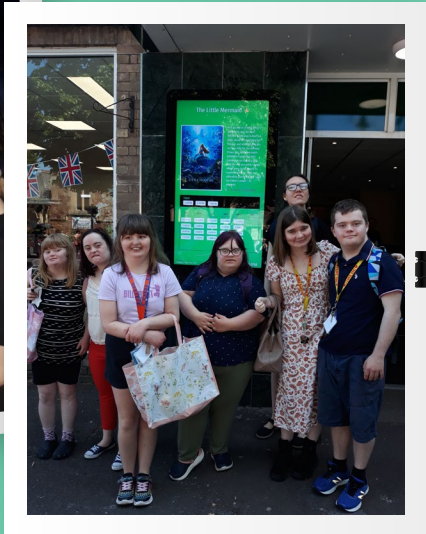

The main focus this past week has been on exams, with our first and second years completing their ESB exams. We have been so impressed and proud of our students for their commitment to this aspect of their education, as they develop their communication skills to prepare them for life and work beyond Foxes.

Our third years have been further developing their maths skills by looking at how they can be used in a cinema setting! This includes recognising seating numbers, prices and viewing times. Whilst this is a classroom activity, the majority of our students enjoy accessing our fantastic local cinema in their free time and learning to transfer these skills will support them to become independent.

Third years have also continued to expand on their ICT skills by emailing their yearbook comments and reflecting on their moments for celebration throughout their journey here at Foxes. This has been really well received by our third years and there has been much laughter and joy.
